

Name _____ Hour _____ Date _____

WORLD WAR II CHAPTER 11 REVIEW TICKET

Define the following terms

442nd Regimental Combat Team

A. Philip Randolph

Albert Einstein

Battle of the Bulge

Bracero program

Chester Nimitz

Concentration camp.

D-Day

Dwight Eisenhower

Executive Order 8802

GATT

Geneva Convention

Genocide

George S. Patton, Jr.

Harry S. Truman

Holocaust

Internment

Island hopping

J. Robert Oppenheimer

Kamikaze

Korematsu v. United States

Kristallnacht

Manhattan Project

Nuremberg Laws

Nuremberg trials

OWI

Rationing

Saturation bombing

Strategic bombing

Superpowers

Unconditional surrender

United Nations

Universal Declaration of Human Rights

War Refugee Board

Yalta Conference

Explain how W.W. II affected African-Americans after the war.

What was the purpose of forming the United Nations?

Identify the two nations that became the strongest after the completion of the war.

Explain how Japan changed politically after the war.

What limited the U.S. government's response to the Holocaust?

How did camp commanders in Nazi concentration camps identify different groups of people?

Explain why many Jews were unable to leave Nazi Germany.

Explain how Hitler economically persecuted the Jews.

Who made the decision to drop the bomb on Japan?

Explain how Japanese forces reacted to U.S. forces as they got closer to the Japanese mainland.

Explain one of the effects that the Battle of the Bulge had on W.W. II.

Explain one of the effects that the D-Day Invasion had on W.W. II.

Identify who created the Office of Price Administration.

Explain the effects that Executive Order 9066 had on civil liberties in the U.S.

Explain how many African-Americans during the war benefitted from the conflict.

Explain how wartime pressures created a break from the past for many women in the U.S.

Explain how the U.S. benefitted from the Battle at Midway.

Explain how the allied bombing of Germany in 1942 changed the war.

Explain how the German war effort was greatly affected by their loss at Stalingrad.

Explain why the allies decided to pursue a "Europe First" Strategy.